Arias M. Brownback Memorial Scholarship Application
Farming for the Future Conference 2006
State College, PA

In an ongoing effort to provide educational opportunities for those wishing to learn sustainable agriculture techniques and methods regardless of financial position, PASA announces the Arias M. Brownback Memorial Scholarship Fund. This scholarship is available for youth and other developing farmers who demonstrate a financial need to support continuing education in sustainable agriculture. Conference scholarships will be awarded to cover the full cost of two-day conference registration plus a one-year PASA membership. This scholarship does not include lodging or meals.

To be eligible for the scholarship, you must:

1. Currently be developing a sustainable farming enterprise or currently farming.
2. Demonstrate a financial need to support continuing education in sustainable agriculture.
3. Willing to describe what you learned at the conference and how you plan to use your newfound knowledge in the PASA newsletter.
4. Successfully complete the attached application and return it by the January 6th deadline.

Applicants are not guaranteed a scholarship. Conference scholarships will be awarded to cover up to the full cost of two-day registration plus a one-year PASA membership. A Scholarship Review Committee will review all applications. All applicants will remain eligible for early-bird registration (a $10 discount off full registration price) if a scholarship is not awarded. All scholarship applicants will be notified of awards by January 20, 2006.

Applications must be received by January 6, 2006. Please return completed application to PASA Conference Scholarship • 114 West Main Street • PO Box 419

Millheim, PA • 16854.
